Pitts,2009-01-05 Vincent J Pitts chronicles the life and times of one of France s most remarkable kings in the first English language biography of Henri IV to be published in twenty five years An unwelcome heir to the throne Henri ruled over a kingdom plagued by religious civil war and political and economic instability By the end of his reign in 1610 he had pacified his warring country restored its prosperity and reclaimed France s place as a leading power in Europe Pitts draws upon the rich scholarship of recent decades to tell the captivating story of this pivotal French king From boyhood Henri was destined to be leader and protector of the Huguenot movement in France He served as chief of the Calvinist party and fought for the Huguenot forces in the bloody Wars of Religion before an extraordinary sequence of dynastic mishaps left the Protestant warlord next in line for the French crown Henri was forced to renounce his faith in support of his claim to the Catholic throne and to unite his deeply divided country A master of political maneuvering Henri restored order to a country in the throes of great religious political and economic upheaval He was assassinated in 1610 by a Catholic zealot Vincent Pitts expertly recounts this history and skillfully untangles its complex set of personalities and events Pitts engages the vast amount of literature relating to the king himself as well as the large body of recent scholarship on France during this time The result is a fascinating biography of a French king and a comprehensive history of sixteenth century France     Records of English Court Music Andrew Ashbee,2017-09-19 Pioneering work on the musical material from the archives of the English court was undertaken by Nagel 1894 Lafontaine 1909 and Stokes in the Musical Antiquary 1903 1913 Records of English Court Music a series of seven volumes covering the period 1485 1714 is the first attempt to compile a systematic calendar of such references It aims to revise these earlier studies where necessary adding significant details which researchers omitted clarifying the context of documents and substituting current call marks for defunct references Volume V is primarily concerned with the post Restoration years already partially covered in volumes I and II The material from the Exchequer and Declared Accounts of the Treasurer of the Chamber has been revised to include references to trumpeters and drummers Other sections are devoted to material outside the Lord Chamberlain s papers the Signet Office Docquet Books Secret Service accounts and more from the Exchequer the Corporation of Musick controlled by the Court musicians and to the range of music material from accounts of the Receivers General Samples from the comprehensive records of the Lord Steward s department including those of the Cofferer of the Household are also provided Andrew Ashbee was the winner of the Oldman Prize in 1987 for Volume II in the series of Records of English Court Music awarded by the UK branch of the International Association of Music Libraries for the year s best book on music librarianship bibliography and reference     Handbook of Lasers Marvin J.
