Bucer, Ephesians and Biblical Humanism N. Scott Amos, 2014-10-27 This book describes Martin Bucer 1491 1551 as a teacher of theology focusing on his time as Regius Professor of Divinity at the University of Cambridge between 1549 and 1551 The book is centered on his 1550 Cambridge lectures on Ephesians and investigates them in their historical context exploring what sort of a theologian Bucer was The lectures are examined to find out how they represent Bucer's method of teaching and doing theology and shed light on the relationship between biblical exegesis and theological formulation as he understood it Divided into two interconnected parts the book first sets the historical context for the lectures including a broad sketch of scholastic method in theology and the biblical humanist critique of that method It then closely examines Bucer's practice in the Cambridge lectures to show the extent to which he was a theologian of the biblical humanist school influenced by the method Erasmus set forth in the Ratio Verae Theologiae in which true theology begins ends and is best done as an exercise in the exegesis of the Word of God The Zurich Letters, 2 Hastings Robinson, 1845 French Vernacular Books / Livres vernaculaires français (FB) (2 vols.) Andrew Pettegree, Malcolm Walsby, Alexander Wilkinson, 2007-11-30 This work offers for the first time a complete list of all books published wholly or partially in the French language before 1601 Based on twelve years of investigations in libraries in France the United Kingdom the United States Germany the Netherlands and elsewhere it provides an analytical short title catalogue of over 52 000 bibliographically distinct items with reference to surviving copies in over 1 600 libraries worldwide Many of the items described are editions and even complete texts fully unknown and re-discovered by the project French Vernacular Books is an invaluable research tool for all students and scholars interested in the history culture and literature of France as well as historians of the early modern book world For vols III IV please go to French Books III IV Transcript of the Enrollment Books New York (N.Y.).
