Benjamin Ravid, 2023-06-14 The Jewish community of early modern Venice was perhaps the leading Jewish community of its time. It emerged as a response to the desire of the Venetian government to make credit readily available and toward the end of the 16th century it greatly expanded as Venice faced with a serious decline in its international maritime trade adopted a policy of attracting Iberian New Christian merchants. Yet Jews were still treated as the Other and subjected to restrictions and discriminatory measures including confinement to a segregated enclosed quarter the ghetto. Despite this the interplay between economically motivated raison d'état and traditional religious hostility resulted in a delicate balance which enabled the Jewish community of Venice to assume a real leadership role in the world of the Iberian Jewish Diaspora. Based extensively on previously unconsulted documents these articles deal with central issues in the experience of the Jews of Venice and so of Diaspora Jewish history in general: the Jewish quarter maritime trade and urban moneylending the Jewish distinguishing head covering relations with church and state the forced baptism of Jewish minors the converso problem and anti Judaism.

Records of English Court Music Andrew Ashbee, 2020-09-23 Pioneering work on the musical material from the archives of the English court was undertaken by Nagel 1894 Lafontaine 1909 and Stokes in the Musical Antiquary 1903 1913. Records of English Court Music a series of seven volumes covering the period 1485 1714 is the first attempt to compile a systematic calendar of such references. It aims to revise these earlier studies where necessary adding significant details which researchers omitted clarifying the context of documents and substituting current call marks for defunct references. Volume V is primarily concerned with the post Restoration years already partially covered in volumes I and II. The material from the Exchequer and Declared Accounts of the Treasurer of the Chamber has been revised to include references to trumpeters and drummers. Other sections are devoted to material outside the Lord Chamberlain's papers the Signet Office Docquet Books Secret Service accounts and more from the Exchequer the Corporation of Musick controlled by the Court musicians and to the range of music material from accounts of the Receivers General. Samples from the comprehensive records of the Lord Steward's department including those of the Cofferer of the Household are also provided. Andrew Ashbee was the winner of the Oldman Prize in 1987 for Volume II in the series of Records of English Court Music awarded by the UK branch of the International Association of Music Libraries for the year's best book on music librarianship bibliography and reference.

Arabic and Persian Loanwords in Tagalog Jean-Paul G. POTET, 2013 The few and generally obsolete Tagalog words of Arabic and/or Persian origin that can be found in old and modern dictionaries are fragments from a period when they must have been more numerous although their number cannot ever have been very large. Some illustrate how Manila was an outpost of the Bornean polity based in Brunei itself a part of the Indo Javanese system while others point at direct contacts with traders who spoke some varieties of Arabic but were probably Indians Persians Armenians from Persia or even Turks. Thus these terms entered Tagalog over a very long period that lasted until the 19th
