Marples, 2016-09-17 Why did the Soviet Union collapse in 1991 The collapse of the Soviet Union has widely been seen as the result of the arms race and Cold War and the failure of the Soviet side to keep pace with new technology This book argues that the disintegration was mainly a result of two interrelated factors the rise of the Soviet national republics and the manipulation of the new Russian presidency by Boris Yeltsin in what became a direct power struggle between Yeltsin and the Soviet leader Gorbachev Written in a clear and accessible manner the book provides an explanation of how the national question came to dominate Soviet politics by 1990 1 analysis of the economic crisis that occurred in the late 1980s a chapter devoted to the year 1991 from the referendum to reform the Soviet Union to the unforeseen dissolution of the country by December a discussion of the personalities of and political confrontation between the two key statesman Gorbachev and Yeltsin Also containing a Chronology Glossary and Who's Who of key figures The Collapse of the Soviet Union is essential reading for students of twentieth century European history Britain and the French Revolution Clive Emsley, 2014-10-13 The French Revolution catapulted Europe into a new period of political upheaval social change and into the modern era This book provides a concise introduction to the impact of the French Revolution on Britain and to the ways in which this impact has been assessed by historians The book is organised thematically It begins with a survey of the ideological debate sparked off by the Revolution discussing in particular the work of people such as Burke Paine Spence and Wollstonecraft From here it presents an exploration of the Revolution's impact on Parliamentary politics The growth of radicalism and loyalism The way in which French ideas influenced Irish aspirations to generate rebellion The third main section of the book focuses on the causes and course of Britain's war with Revolutionary France and on the effects of the war on the home front most notably the recurrent serious food shortages Results of Observations Made at the United States
