Young, 2006-11-01 Soul Power is a cultural history of those whom Cynthia A Young calls U S Third World Leftists activists of color who appropriated theories and strategies from Third World anticolonial struggles in their fight for social and economic justice in the United States during the long 1960s Nearly thirty countries in Africa Asia and Latin America declared formal independence in the 1960s alone Arguing that the significance of this wave of decolonization to U S activists has been vastly underestimated Young describes how literature films ideologies and political movements that originated in the Third World were absorbed by U S activists of color She shows how these transnational influences were then used to forge alliances create new vocabularies and aesthetic forms and describe race class and gender oppression in the United States in compelling terms Young analyzes a range of U S figures and organizations examining how each deployed Third World discourse toward various cultural and political ends She considers a trip that LeRoi Jones Harold Cruse and Robert F Williams made to Cuba in 1960 traces key intellectual influences on Angela Y Davis s writing and reveals the early history of the hospital workers 1199 union as a model of U S Third World activism She investigates Newsreel a late 1960s activist documentary film movement and its successor Third World Newsreel which produced a seminal 1972 film on the Attica prison rebellion She also considers the L A Rebellion a group of African and African American artists who made films about conditions in the Watts neighborhood of Los Angeles By demonstrating the breadth vitality and legacy of the work of U S Third World Leftists Soul Power firmly establishes their crucial place in the history of twentieth century American struggles for social change 1199 News ,1988
