Letters and Communities Paola Ceccarelli,Lutz Doering,Thorsten Fögen,Ingo Gildenhard,2018-08-16 The writing of letters often evokes associations of a single author and a single addressee who share in the exchange of intimate thoughts across distances of space and time This model underwrites such iconic notions as the letter representing an image of the soul of the author or constituting one half of a dialogue However justified this conception of letter writing may be in particular instances it tends to marginalize a range of issues that were central to epistolary communication in the ancient world and have yet to receive sustained and systematic investigation In particular it overlooks the fact that letters frequently presuppose and were designed to reinforce communities or indeed to constitute them in the first place This volume explores the interrelation of letters and communities in the ancient world examining how epistolary communication aided in the construction and cultivation of group identities and communities whether social political religious ethnic or philosophical A theoretically informed Introduction establishes the interface of epistolary discourse and group formation as a vital but hitherto neglected area of research and is followed by thirteen case studies offering multi disciplinary perspectives from four key cultural configurations Greece Rome Judaism and Christianity The first part opens the volume with two chapters on the theory and practice of epistolary communication that focus on ancient epistolary theory and the unavoidable presence of a letter carrier who introduces a communal aspect into any correspondence while the second comprises five chapters that explore configurations of power and epistolary communication in the Greek and Roman worlds from the archaic period to the end of the Hellenistic age Five chapters on letters and communities in Ancient Judaism and Early Christianity follow in the third part before the volume concludes with an envoi examining the trans historical or indeed timeless philosophical community Seneca the Younger construes in his Letters to Lucilius Coastal Waterbird Colonies Carl E. Nonlinear Dynamical Economics and Chaotic Motion Hans-Walter Lorenz, 2012-12-06 Usually the first edition of a book still contains a multiplicity of typographic con ceptional and computational errors even if one believes the opposite at the time of publication As this book did not represent a counterexample to this rule the current second edition offers a chance to remove at least the known shortcomings The book has been partly re organized The previously rather long Chapter 4 has been split into two separate chapters dealing with discrete time and continuous time approaches to nonlinear economic dynamics The short summary of basic properties of linear dynamical systems has been banned to an appendix because the line of thought in the chapter seems to have been unnecessarily interrupted by these technical details and because the book concentrates on nonlinear systems This appendix which mainly deals with special formal properties of dynamical sys tems also contains some new material on invariant subspaces and center manifold reductions A brief introduction into the theory of lags and operators is followed by a few remarks on the relation between the true properties of dynamical systems and their behavior observable in numerical experiments Additional changes in the main part of the book include a re consideration of Popper s determinism vs inde terminism discussion in the light of chaotic properties of deterministic nonlinear systems in Chapter 1 An investigation of a simultaneous price quantity adjustment process a more detailed inquiry into the uniqueness property of limit cycles and a short presentation of relaxation oscillations are included in Chapter 2
