Dutch and Flemish Newspapers of the Seventeenth Century, 1618-1700 (2 Vols.) Arthur der Weduwen, 2017-11-06
Winner of the 2019 Menno Hertzberger Encouragement Prize for Book History and Bibliography In Dutch and Flemish Newspapers of the Seventeenth Century Arthur der Weduwen presents the first comprehensive account of the early newspaper in the Low Countries Composed of two volumes this survey provides detailed introductions and bibliographical descriptions of 49 newspapers surviving in over 16 000 issues in 84 archives and libraries This work presents a crucial overview of the first fledgling century of newspaper publishing and reading in one of the most advanced political cultures of early modern Europe Seventy years after Folke Dahl s Dutch Corantos first documented early Dutch newspapers Der Weduwen offers a brand new approach to the bibliography of the early modern periodical press This includes amongst others a description of places of correspondence listed in each surviving newspaper The bibliography is accompanied by an extensive introduction of the Dutch and Flemish press in the seventeenth century What emerges is a picture of a highly competitive and dynamic market for news in which innovative publishers constantly adapt to the changing tastes of customers and pressures from authorities at home and abroad Official Gazette of the United States Patent Office United States. Patent Office, 1928 Records of the Colony of New Plymouth, in New England: Miscellaneous records [including Births, marriages, deaths and burials; Treasury accounts, and Lists of freemen and others] 1633-1689 New Plymouth Colony, 1857 Some records of Sussex County, Delaware Charles Henry Black Turner, 1909-01-01 Calendar of state papers, 1898 The Politics of the Excluded, c. 1500-1850 Tim Harris, 2017-03-14 This collection of essays seeks to shed light on the politics of those people who are normally thought of as being excluded from the political nation in early modern England If by political nation we mean those who sat in parliament the governors of counties and towns and the enfranchised classes in the constituencies then the excluded would be those who were neither actively involved in the process of governing nor had any say in choosing those who would rule over them the bulk of the population at this time Yet this volume shows that these people were not in fact excluded from politics Not only did the masses possess political opinions which they were capable of articulating in a public forum but they were also often active participants in the political process themselves and taken seriously in that capacity by the governmental elite The various essays deal with topics as wide ranging as riots rumours libels seditious words public opinion the structures of local government and the gendered dimensions of popular political participation and cover the period from the eve of the Reformation to the Industrial Revolution They challenge many existing assumptions concerning the nature and significance of public opinion and politics out of doors in the early modern period and show us that the people mattered in politics and thus why we as historians cannot afford to ignore them Politics was more participatory in this undemocratic age than one might have thought The contributors to this volume show that there was a lively and engaged public sphere throughout this period from Tudor times to the Georgian era Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress.
